BIO:

Cole Tomlinson is an energetic Country Music singer with a stage show that charms the audience and showcases talent beyond his years. Wowing audiences with his genuine southern boy charm, easy going demeanor, and solid country sound, Cole has audiences on their feet and eager to hear more.

A south Florida native, Cole has lived also lived in Texas and now calls Georgia home. Cole began singing at age 2 in churches across the South with his singer/guitar player father. As his confidence boomed he began seeking out his own music and experimenting with a variety of musical instruments. He continues to sing Southern Gospel, Contemporary Christian and Bluegrass but has turned the focus of his career to Country Music.

Cole has participated in and won several talent and music showcases and school productions. Besides music his passions include football (GO DAWGS!!), wrestling, and fishing.
